

The Annual Congressional Arts Competition, An Artistic Discovery, gives Members of Congress a unique opportunity to showcase the artistic talents of high school students from across their district. The winner of this competition will have their artwork showcased in the U.S. Capitol Building for one year and will receive a scholarship to the Savannah College of Arts and Design .

The competition is open to all high school students in the Fourth Congressional District. Students attending any public, private or home school are welcome to participate. Please click here for a complete list of guidelines. All students must fill out a Student Entry Form in order to participate. To access this form click here

For addition information, please contact my Natrona Heights office at (724) 226-1304 or email: beth.newman@mail.house.gov or visit the Congressional Arts Competition's official website here